ADA 504 STATEMENT:

Help for People with Disabilities

The Georgia Department of Human Services and the Georgia Department of Community Health ("the Departments") are required by federal law* to provide persons with disabilities an equal opportunity to participate in and qualify for the Departments' programs, services, or activities. This includes programs such as SNAP, TANF and Medical Assistance.

The Departments provide reasonable modifications when the modifications are necessary to avoid discrimination based on disability. For example, we may change policies, practices, or procedures to provide equal access. To ensure equally effective communication, we provide persons with disabilities or their companions with disabilities communication assistance, such as sign language interpreters. Our help is free. The Departments are not required to make any modification that would result in a fundamental alteration in the nature of a service, program, or activity or in undue financial and administrative burdens.

How to Request a Reasonable Modification or Communication Assistance

Please contact your caseworker if you have a disability and need a reasonable modification, communication assistance, or extra help. For instance, call if you need an aid or service for effective communication, like a sign language interpreter. You may contact your caseworker or call DFCS at 877-423-4746 or the DCH Katie Beckett (KB) Team at 678-248-7449 to make your request. NON-DISCRIMINATION:

In accordance with federal civil rights laws and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA. Programs that receive federal financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), such as Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), and programs HHS directly operates are also prohibited from discrimination under federal civil rights laws and HHS regulations.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language), should contact the agency (state or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or who have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

- Request auxiliary aids and services and reasonable modifications if you or someone in your household has a disability.
- Decide if you want to provide information about your race and ethnicity. We collect data on race and ethnicity solely for the purpose of determining the State's compliance with Federal civil rights laws, and your response will not affect consideration of your application, and may be protected by the Privacy Act. By providing this information, you will assist us in assuring that this program is administered in a nondiscriminatory manner. Your household is not required to give us this information and it will not affect your eligibility or benefit level.
- Request a fair hearing in writing or in person. You have the right to be represented by a household member, legal counsel, a relative, a friend or other spokesperson. If you are not satisfied with the action we have taken on your case, you can request a hearing by contacting the county office where you applied for benefits or by calling 1-877- 423-4746.
- Review some of the material and information in your case file. However, you may not be able to see all of the information in the case file, such as names of people who have given us information about you or your household members or information about any criminal prosecutions involving you or any of your household members.
- Decide if you want to provide a Social Security Number (SSN), citizenship, or immigration status. Only the people who give information to us about their SSN, citizenship, or immigration status will be eligible to receive benefits. This information will be used to check the "Income and Eligibility Verification System" (IEVS) and other computer matches with other agencies to verify your income and other points of eligibility. We may also give this information to other Federal and State agencies to review and to law enforcement officials for them to use in catching people who are running from the law. If your household has a Food Stamp or SNAP claim, the information on this application, including the SSN, may be given to Federal and State agencies and private claims collection agencies for them to use in collecting the claim. We will not share your information with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS); however, if alien status information has been submitted on your application, this information may be subject to verification through USCIS and may affect your household's eligibility and benefit level. We will not deny help to people asking for help because other household members do not provide their SSN, citizenship, or immigration status. The following federal laws and regulations: 7 U.S.C. § 2011-2036, 45 C.F.R. § 205.52, 42 C.F.R. § 435.910, 42 C.F.R. § 435.920, authorize DFCS to request you and your household members social security number(s).

- Telling the truth at all times. If you or someone who is applying for you provides incorrect information, you may be committing a crime, and you may go to jail.
- Providing proof that you or anyone in your household applying for benefits is a U.S. citizen or eligible immigrant. Note: Your worker will give you a list of the ways you can prove your citizenship or immigration status. WIC does not require citizenship or immigration status to determine your eligibility for the program. For Child Care, you are responsible for providing proof that any child applying for benefits is a U.S. citizen or qualified alien.
